Langley Hill is a new flagship independent school in Kings Langley for 2-19-year olds that will open in September 2019. The school will support the development of each person to become a well-rounded human being through intellectual, personal and spiritual growth, and so make the world a better place. The School will also draw upon the best of Waldorf principles and pedagogy to deliver a truly unique world-class education.

This is an incredibly exciting opportunity for the right individuals to network and gather international best practice from the most successful Waldorf schools around the world and harness these principles and practices to help support the development of a flagship Waldorf inspired school of the future.

The Class Teacher will join a team of colleagues with responsibility for teaching students aged 7 to 14 in the Lower School. You will have overall responsibility both for the pastoral care of the class and for much of the teaching and classroom work, supported by a team of subject specialist teachers.

They will be expected to demonstrate:

- A deep interest in and knowledge of the anthroposophical basis of Steiner-Waldorf education and its curriculum, a proven ability to relate to and inspire children, and an ability to communicate and work well with colleagues and parents;
- They hold an approved Steiner Waldorf Teaching Qualification or equivalent appropriate experience or at least one of the following:
 - Qualified Teacher Status, in State education;
 - A degree and postgraduate certificate of education;
 - Proven, successful teaching experience in another Steiner school
- A commitment to ensuring the safeguarding and wellbeing of children;
- Strong organisational skills and a strong sense of responsibility;
- Exceptional self-motivation and imagination;
- An ability to work both as part of a team and independently;

- Flexibility and positivity in attitude to work;
- Exceptional communication skills, both orally and in writing;
- An ability to cope with pressure;
- An ability to present all subjects artistically;
- An understanding of the compliance and legal obligations, including the Inspection requirements as defined by Ofsted.
